Enclosure: Allocation of authority

1. Principles

These regulations concerning the organization, the duties and the authority of the Board of Directors of Geberit AG have been issued by the Board of Directors in accordance with the articles of incorporation and in compliance with statutory provisions.

On the basis of its voting majority, Geberit AG combines its subsidiaries and the associated companies in which a majority controlling interest is held under the uniform management of the Geberit Group and assumes their overriding management as a Group.

2. Organization of the Group

The main elements of the Geberit management structure are:

- The Board of Directors and its committees
- The Chairman of the Board of Directors
- The Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors and Lead Director (hereinafter referred to as Lead Director)
- The Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
- The Group Executive Board

Below the CEO, the Group Executive Board is subdivided into four Group Divisions:

- Sales Europe
- Sales International
- Products
- Finance

A distinction is made within the Group Divisions between three management levels to which Group and company managers are allocated on the basis of their importance for the Group profit and loss position.

3. Board of Directors

3.1 Duties and authority

3.1.1 Irrevocable duties

The Board of Directors has the following non-transferable and inalienable duties pursuant to Art. 716a paragraph 1 of the Swiss Code of Obligations:

- The overriding management of the company and the issuing of necessary instructions
- The establishment of the organization
- The structuring of the accounting system, of the financial controls as well as of the financial planning insofar as this is necessary to manage the company
- The appointment and dismissal of the persons entrusted with management and representation
- The overriding supervision of persons entrusted with management, in particular with respect to compliance with the law, the articles of incorporation, regulations and instructions
- The preparation of the Annual Report and the preparation of the General Meeting and the implementation of its resolutions
- Informing the respective court in the event of over-indebtedness.

Organizational Regulations

for the Board of Directors of Geberit AG

The Appendix to these organizational regulations contains a detailed list of the decision-making powers and Group management duties. It is an integral part of these organizational regulations.

3.1.2 Additional duties

The Board of Directors has the following additional duties:

- Passing of resolutions concerning the amount of share capital and approval of increases in share capital and corresponding amendments to the articles of incorporation. The Board of Directors also determines the dividend policy
- Determination of the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors and of its committees
- Determination of the remuneration and terms and conditions of appointment of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and the members of the Group Executive Board
- Determination of bonus, option and share savings plans

3.1.3 Authority

The Board of Directors is vested with the authorities required for the performance of its duties. In particular, it determines:

- The strategic orientation of the Group
- Organizational strategy
- The structuring of the accounting system and of the financial controls as well as of the financial planning
- The fundamental principles of financial and investment policy, of personnel and social policy as well as of management
- Signature authorization policy as well as the allocation of authority
- The fundamental principles of internal corporate auditing
- The powers and duties of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Lead Director, the committees of the Board of Directors as well as of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

3.1.4 Appointments

The Board of Directors appoints and dismisses:

- The Chairman of the Board of Directors
- The Lead Director
- The Chairman and the members of the committees appointed by it
- The Chairman and the members of the Group Executive Board
- The Secretary
- The Head of the Internal Audit Department

3.1.5 Approvals

The Board of Directors receives the reports of the committees and of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and approves the following transactions:

- Changes in the strategic orientation of the Group
- Entry into new areas of activity and the abandonment of existing ones
- Changes in the assets of subsidiaries and shareholdings within the scope of the allocation of authority
- Investments within the scope of the allocation of authority
- Choice of new or relinquishing of existing sites which are of fundamental importance
- Medium-term planning and budget
- Conducting litigation pursuant to the allocation of authority
- All other transactions which, pursuant to the allocation of authority, exceed the authority of the Group Executive Board or of the committees of the Board of Directors

Organizational Regulations

for the Board of Directors of Geberit AG

3.1.6 Delegation

The Board of Directors delegates its powers to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) within the limits permitted by law.

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) makes independent decisions concerning delegated powers within the limits of the present organizational regulations. He is empowered to delegate the management and supervisory functions to be performed by him to individual members of the Group Executive Board and/or to other managers of the Geberit Group.

3.1.7 Reporting

The reporting by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to the Board of Directors comprises:

- Monthly and quarterly reports, the half-year report and the annual report
- Presentation and assessment of business developments in terms of markets and products, including a comparison with competitors
- Information on business transactions of fundamental significance outside of periodical reporting
- Shareholder structure of Geberit AG

3.1.8 Assessment of collaborative efforts within the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall carry out an assessment of its collaborative efforts at least once annually. This shall include an assessment of the state of information available to the members of the Board of Directors with respect to the Group and the development of its business.

3.2 Organization

3.2.1 Composition

The Board of Directors shall be comprised of no fewer than 2 and no more than 7 members who must be shareholders, unless they are elected as representatives of a legal entity or of a trading company.

The Board of Directors shall constitute itself.

3.2.2 Term of office

The Board of Directors shall be elected for a maximum of 3 years, whereby the term of office shall be determined at the time of the election. The members of the Board of Directors can be re-elected at any time. Nevertheless, they shall leave office at the next ordinary General Meeting after reaching the age of 70.

3.2.3 Meetings

The Board of Directors shall meet as frequently as required by business matters, although no less frequently than once per quarter.

The calling of the meeting, together with details of the agenda, must be made in writing no later than 10 days prior to the meeting. The calling shall be performed by the Chairman or, in the event of incapacity, by the Lead Director. The Lead Director can himself call meetings of the independent members of the Board of Directors. Each member of the Board of Directors is entitled to demand the immediate calling of a meeting after stating the purpose for doing so.

Meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman or, in the event of incapacity or if the meeting is called by the Lead Director, by the Lead Director.

Organizational Regulations

for the Board of Directors of Geberit AG

The Board of Directors shall appoint a Secretary who need not be a member of the Board of Directors.

In consultation with the Lead Director, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) can invite members of the Group Executive Board to the meetings of the Board of Directors. In addition to this, third parties can also be invited to meetings of the Board of Directors.

3.2.4 Resolutions

The Board of Directors shall be quorate if a majority of its members are present. Attendance can also be effected via telephone or electronic media. No quorum is required if the resolutions to be decided upon concern exclusively the implementation of an increase in share capital and the subsequent amendment to be made to the articles of incorporation.

Resolutions shall be passed with a majority of the votes cast. In the event of a tied vote, the Chairman shall cast the deciding vote.

Resolutions of the Board of Directors concerning a submitted proposal can also be passed in writing or via facsimile or electronic data transmission, unless one of the members demands oral discussion.

3.2.5 Minutes

Minutes must be taken of the discussions and resolutions. These must be signed by the Chairman and the Secretary and circulated to all members of the Board of Directors. They must be approved by the Board of Directors at its next meeting. Written resolutions must be recorded in the next minutes.

3.2.6 Conflicts of interest

The members of the Board of Directors are obliged to refrain from involvement in the handling of matters affecting either their personal interests or those of a company with which they have an affiliation. This obligation to refrain from involvement has no influence on the requirements for a quorum when passing resolutions.

Business dealings between the company and members of the executive bodies or affiliated persons are subject to the principle of conclusion at conditions as with independent third parties.

3.2.7 Confidentiality

The members of the Board of Directors, the Secretary as well as all other persons participating in meetings of the Board of Directors, are obliged to treat all information obtained in the performance of their functions as confidential unless this information is already public knowledge.

3.2.8 Documents

Retiring members shall hand over their documents, or a declaration confirming that they have destroyed these, to the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Organizational Regulations

for the Board of Directors of Geberit AG

3.2.9 Right to information

Each member of the Board of Directors can request information concerning any company or Group matters.

If a member of the Board of Directors wishes to receive information or to inspect business documents outside of the meetings, he must address this request to the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

3.3 Chairman

3.3.1 Appointment

The Chairman is appointed by the Board of Directors.

3.3.2 Duties and authority

The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall manage the Board of Directors on the basis of the statutory regulations, the articles of incorporation and the provisions of these regulations. He shall ensure correct procedures with respect to the preparation, implementation and passing of resolutions, and shall perform his duties in close consultation with the Lead Director.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall ensure a close relation between the Board of Directors and its committees. This is particularly necessary with respect to the appointment, development and dismissal of the members of the Group Executive Board.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall assume the duties assigned to him by these regulations. In particular, he is responsible:

- For ensuring that all precautionary measures are taken to safeguard the interests of the Group
- For regular consultation with the Board of Directors concerning the strategic orientation of the Group
- For monitoring the measures decided upon by the Board of Directors

3.3.3 Urgent resolutions

As an exception and in urgent cases, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) can, following consultation with the Lead Director, be empowered to act even before proposals are approved by the Board of Directors. Any such decisions must be communicated to the other members without delay and ratified by the full Board of Directors at its next meeting.

3.3.4 Additional authority

The Chairman of the Board of Directors can represent the overall interests of the Group externally.

3.4 Committees

If needed, the Board of Directors of the company can elect committees from its midst and assign these authority in separate regulations. These committees shall report to the Board of Directors concerning activities and results. Overall responsibility for the duties assigned to the committees shall however under all circumstances remain with the Board of Directors.

Organizational Regulations

for the Board of Directors of Geberit AG

The Board of Directors has formed two committees at the present time: The Audit Committee and the Personnel Committee (combining the duties of a Corporate Governance/Nomination/Compensation Committee) are made up each of three independent, non-executive members of the Board of Directors.

3.5 Vice President and Lead Director

3.5.1 Appointment

The Board of Directors shall appoint its Vice Chairman as Lead Director for the period during which the function of Chairman of the Board of Directors and that of Chief Executive Officer (CEO) are performed by one and the same person. This Lead Director must be an independent and non-executive member of the Board of Directors.

3.5.2 Duties and authority

In the interests of exemplary Corporate Governance, the Lead Director shall ensure leadership and control of the top management of the company that is well-balanced and independent of the operative management.

He shall be responsible in particular for:

- Management of the Board of Directors – if necessary solely for individual agenda items – given a conflict of interests on the part of the Chairman of the Board of Directors
- Management of the Board of Directors for the assessment of the work of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
- Management of the Board of Directors concerning the passing of resolutions on the remuneration of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

3.5.3 Additional authority

The Lead Director can himself call meetings of the independent members of the Board of Directors.

3.6 Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

3.6.1 Appointment

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is appointed by the Board of Directors.

3.6.2 Duties and authority

The Board of Directors has delegated the management of the Group in full to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) on the basis of the law, the articles of incorporation and these organizational regulations. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) receives the related, necessary, comprehensive authority, obligations and responsibilities.

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is the superior of the members of the Group Executive Board. Within the scope of these regulations, he is responsible for the preparation of the Group strategy and its presentation to the Board of Directors, for the operative management of the company, for its overall financial profit and loss position, for the implementation of the strategic orientation decided by the Board of Directors and for the implementation of the other measures decided by the Board of Directors.

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) also ensures the long-term successful, market and value-oriented management and development of the Geberit Group, and of the Group companies.

Organizational Regulations

for the Board of Directors of Geberit AG

Within the Group Executive Board, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is the contact person for the Lead Director and the members of the Board of Directors. He represents and co-ordinates the positions of the Group Executive Board with respect to the Board of Directors. He submits and justifies the proposals of the Group Executive Board to the Board of Directors. In the case of transactions requiring approval authorization, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) submits corresponding proposals to the Board of Directors and ensures implementation of the resolutions taken.

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) provides information to the members of the Group Executive Board concerning the resolutions, suggestions and wishes of the Board of Directors. He ensures that resolutions are implemented and that suggestions and wishes are taken into account.

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) ensures ongoing, sufficient and, if necessary, immediate information to the Lead Director concerning business developments as well as concerning extraordinary occurrences exercising considerable influence on Group interests.

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) represents the Geberit Group as a whole, both internally and externally.

3.7 Group Executive Board

3.7.1 Composition

The Group Executive Board is currently made up of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and an additional four members.

3.7.2 Duties and authority

The duties and authority of the Group Executive Board are laid down in the rules of procedure for the Group Executive Board as well as in job descriptions; these are approved by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) in consultation with the Lead Director.

Organizational Regulations

for the Board of Directors of Geberit AG

4. General provisions

Members of the Board of Directors have joint power of signature with one other member of the Board of Directors.

The rulings on authorized signatories of Geberit AG are subject to approval by the Board of Directors.

5. Concluding provisions

These regulations shall come into effect upon approval and replace the organizational regulations for the Board of Directors of Geberit AG dated April 27, 2005.
